

Ms. Larrimore

ETHOS 2021

Carlyn Wang '21

The Art and Literature Magazine of Bishop Stang High School

OH, TO BE BLUE
IN AN OCEAN OF YELLOW.
IS CHANGE AN OPTION?

Poetry Art, Isabelle Paquette '22

AN INVESTIGATION OF SUNSHINE'S EFFECT ON THE HUMAN PSYCHE

UV Waves, Olivia Gowell '21

Solar Panel Mood, Olivia Gowell '21

The Room, Emily DeFreitas '22

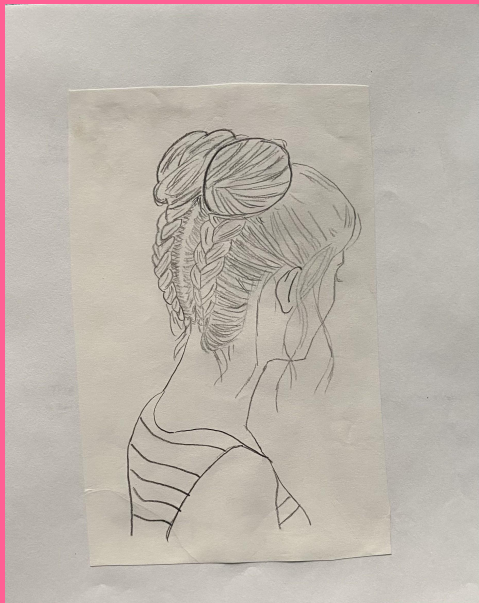

James Andrews '22

Andrew Fortin '23

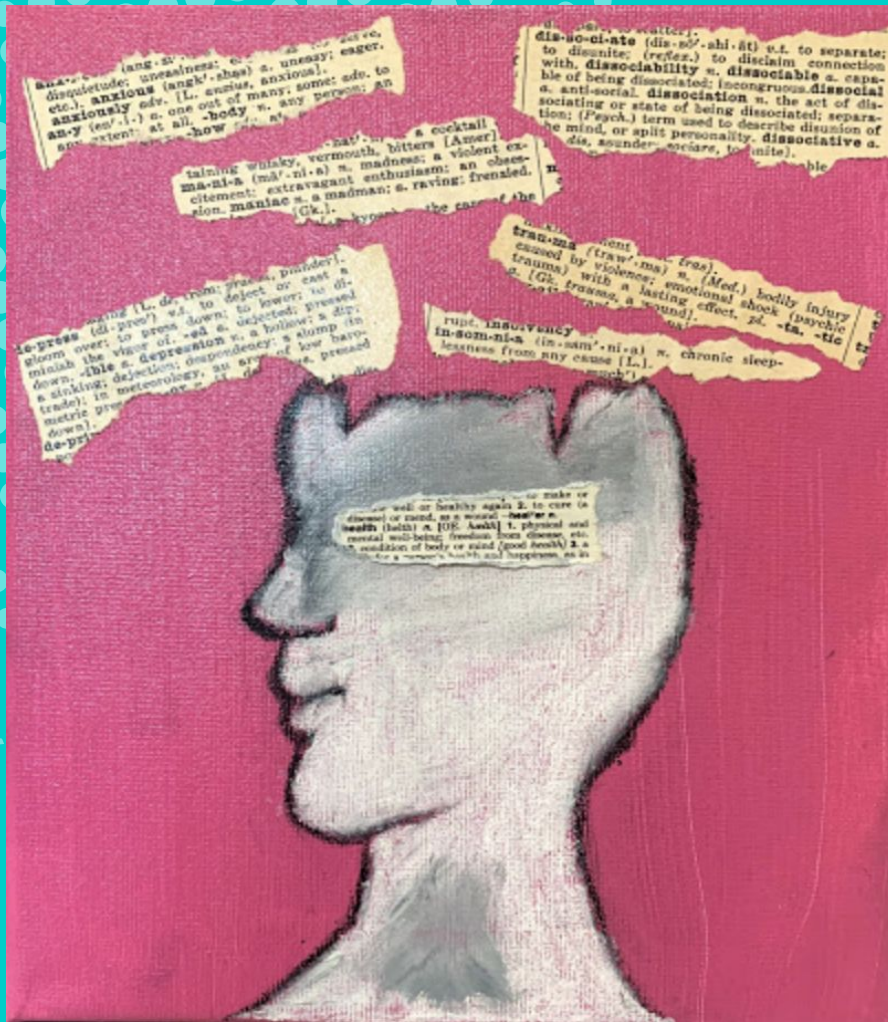

Maeve Donaldson '23

Future, Savannah Kofton '21

The inspiration behind this piece was to provide awareness for mental health. While most times people look fine on the outside, nobody really knows what's going on inside of their head ... The head is cracked and has a few common mental illnesses leaking out from it.

Quinn Morgan '22

Great-Grandma, Savannah Kofton '21

My great-grandmother reaching for the symbol of her late husband. When he passed she saw monarch butterflies, his favorite, everywhere.

BUTTERFLIES

Giovanna Ferrara '23

Meagan Kiely '23

Veronica Medeiros '23

SPARTAN VILLAGE

CHERRY BLOSSOMS

Iliana Marshall '23

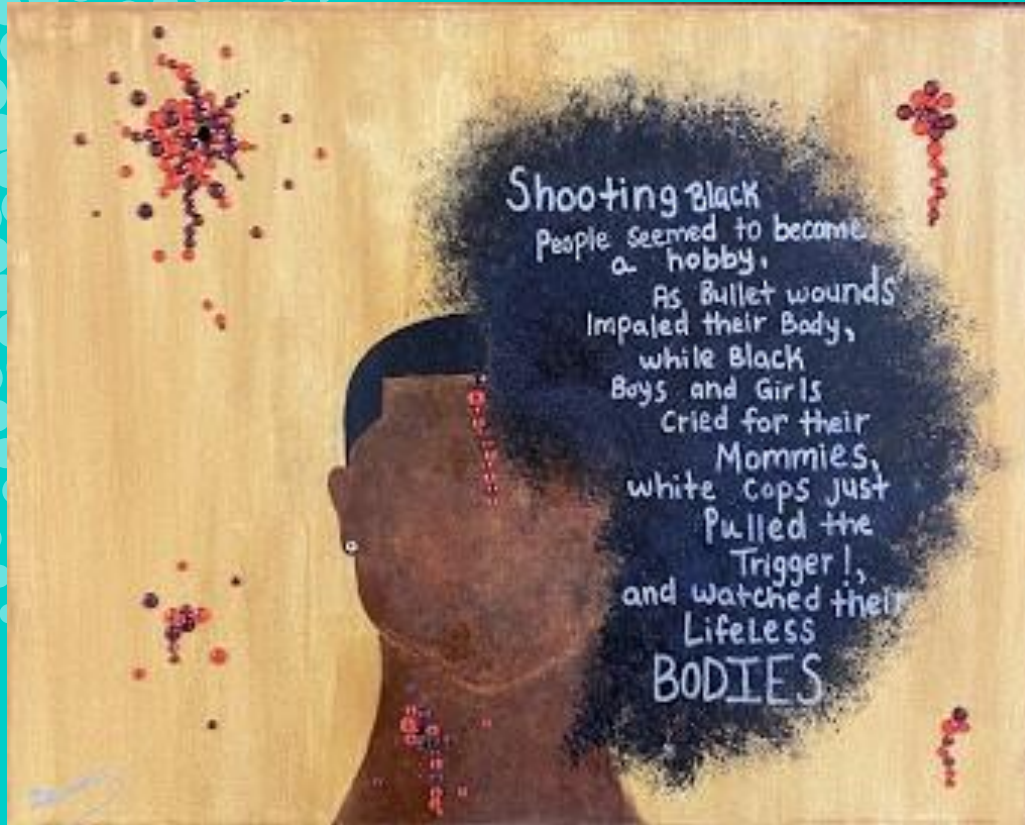

CHAPEL

John Brum '23

GAME DAY

Eleanor Senna '23

The Blood of Victims, Sammy Figueroa '21

BE LIGHT

Nico Ferreira '23

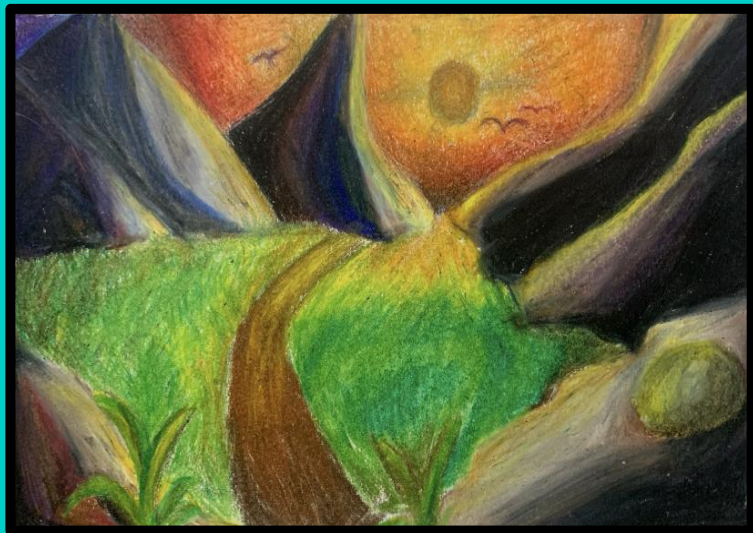

Bon Anniversaire, Ava Gardiner '23

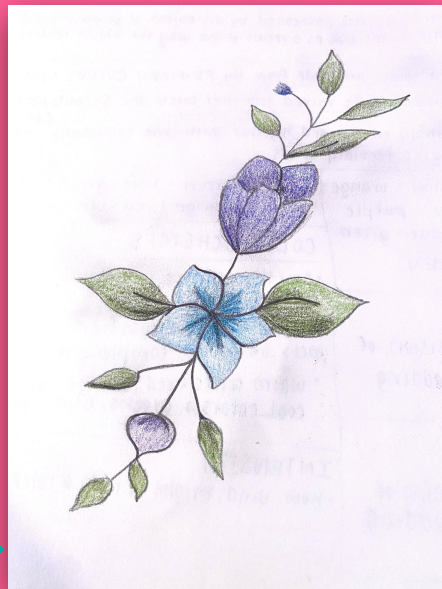

Evan Mersch '22

NATURE

Morning in the Mountains, Callista Levy '23

Jazzy Duncan '23

MORE NATURE

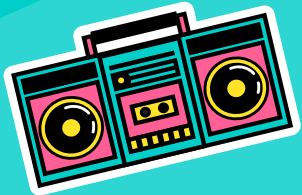

Hannah Ramalho '23

Carlyn Wang '21

Everlasting Dance, Ashley Rivas '21

THANKS!

Questions?

Contact Ann O'Leary

aoleary@bishopstang.org

CREDITS: This presentation template was created by Slidesgo, including icons by Flaticon, and infographics & images by Freepik.

Please keep this slide for attribution.

Prayer Bear, Ms. Larrimore