Bishop Stang's Mission

Bishop Stang High School is a Catholic, college-preparatory school of 550 students located along the beautiful South Coast of Massachusetts in North Dartmouth, Massachusetts. Employees are called to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ by "making known the goodness of God." We holistically educate a diverse student body in a respectful, nurturing, and disciplined environment. Our school family inspires young people to excel in learning and life through growth in faith, integrity, knowledge, and service.

Description

We are seeking an enthusiastic and dedicated Social Studies Teacher to join our high school teaching team for the academic year 2024-2025. The ideal candidate will be passionate about history, civics, and global studies, and committed to helping students become informed, ethical, and engaged citizens.

Primary Responsibilities

- Prepare and deliver engaging and developmentally appropriate Social Studies lessons to students in Grades 9 to 12.
- Design and implement lesson plans that reflect the school's curriculum, align with Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks, and address diverse learning styles.
- Incorporate primary sources, current events, project-based learning, and interdisciplinary connections to enhance student engagement and understanding.
- Assess and monitor student progress; provide regular feedback and adjust instruction to support student growth.
- Utilize technology to support instruction and facilitate student learning.
- Create a classroom environment conducive to learning, characterized by mutual respect and a strong sense of community.
- Participate actively in departmental collaboration, curriculum development, and school-wide initiatives.
- Maintain open and timely communication with students, parents, colleagues, and administrators regarding student performance and needs.

Other Responsibilities: Additional duties as assigned and approved by the Social Studies Department Chairperson and the Administration

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in History, Political Science, Social Studies Education, or a related field.
- Valid teaching certification in Social Studies for high school (preferred but not required).

- Experience teaching high school-level Social Studies (preferred).
- Strong interpersonal, organizational, and communication skills.
- Proficiency in integrating technology into instruction and assessment.
- Willingness to contribute to the school's co-curricular life and mission-driven programming.

Mission Alignment and Commitment Requirements:

- Faith and Values Integration:
 - Integrate Catholic teachings in lessons and school activities, fostering students' spiritual growth and ethical decision-making.
- Commitment to Educational Excellence:
 - Employ diverse instructional strategies to achieve holistic education, prioritizing academic, moral, and spiritual development.
- Promotion of a Diverse and Inclusive Environment:
 - Foster an inclusive, respectful atmosphere that values diversity and addresses the needs of a culturally diverse student body.
- Community and Service Orientation:
 - Promote and engage in community service initiatives, encouraging students to actively participate and contribute.
- Demonstration of Professional Integrity and Discipline:
 - Uphold professional integrity and discipline in all interactions as a role model in fostering a safe and positive learning environment.
